

QUIZ

1. Jacob Boucher and Marc Lajoie both played hockey for this team:

- Vancouver Giants
- Calgary Hitmen
- Edmonton Oil Kings
- Regina Pats

2. Chandra Crawford, originally from Canmore, won the gold medal at the Turin Winter Olympics in this year:

- 2004
- 2006
- 2010
- 2014

3. Members of the Lajoie family (Serge, Marc and Isabelle) have distinguished themselves in this sport:

- Speed skating
- Ski
- Hockey
- Basketball

4. Anne-Marie Dumont, a graduate from École Maurice-Lavallée, decided to put aside her skates to start training in this sport:

- Volleyball
- Track and Field
- Ballet
- Track Cycling

5. Réjean Bourget, originally from Bonnyville, was named Hitter of the Year for this team:

- Edmonton Collegiate Hawks
- Edmonton Riverhawks
- Portland Pickles
- Kelowna Falcons
- Bend Elks

6. Félix Dufour, a graduate from École Maurice-Lavallée, is pursuing his volleyball career at this university in 2023:

- Université de Montréal
- University of Alberta
- Université Laval
- University of Ottawa

7. Jeremiah Huo, originally from Red Deer, competes in this sport:

- Skeleton
- Freestyle skiing
- Snowboard
- Figure skating

8. The greatest athletic challenge for Lamine Niang, Campus Saint-Jean graduate and soccer player:

- Moving to Canada
- Rehabilitation after an injury
- Studying at university
- Canadian winters

9. Ella Veilleux, immersion student at Catholic Central High School in Lethbridge, won three gold medals in dragon boat racing in this event:

- Montreal Dragon Boat Challenge
- Toronto International Dragon Boat Race Festival
- Championnats de France de Dragon Boat
- World Dragon Boat Championships in Thailand

10. Zoryanna Kahanyshyn-Fontaine, a graduate from École Joseph-Moreau and volleyball player with Concordia University Thunder, says they were a great source of inspiration throughout her sports career:

- Friends
- Teachers
- Parents
- Coaches